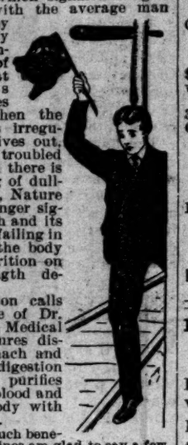
DANGER SIGNALS.



No engineer would be mad enough to run by the flag which signaled danger. It is different with the average man or woman. They attempt constantly to run by the danger signals of Nature and that attempt costs thousands of lives every year. When the appetite becomes irregular or entirely gives out, when sleep is troubled and broken, when there is a constant feeling of dullness and languor, Nature is hoisting the danger signal. The stomach and its allied organs are failing in their work and the body is losing the nutrition on which its strength depends.

Such a condition calls for a prompt use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, purifies and enriches the blood and builds up the body with sound, solid flesh.

"I have had so much benefit from your medicines am glad to say a few words that you may use for publication," writes Mrs. J. R. Downes, Crystal Lake, Conn. "Had been troubled with a complication of diseases for over two years, but kidneys and liver bothered me most. Some of my worst ailments were headache, frequent pains around heart and under right shoulder-blade. My hands and feet were cold nearly all the time, and I had such chilliness between shoulders. Some days cared but little for food; I lost flesh; felt so tired and miserable it seemed I couldn't do any housework. Took medicine from my physician, but received no benefit. Bought a bottle of "Golden Medical Discovery," and after taking it I felt so much better we determined to give it a fair trial. Appetite soon improved and gradually the disorders disappeared until now I am well."

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

Must Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair, No Matter What Color.

"The finest contour of a female face, the sweetest smile of a female mouth, loses something if the head is crowned with scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white scales the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Newbro's Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair, and prevents baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

DECISION AGAINST GENERAL BROOKE.

In the recent suit brought by Maria Francisca O'Reilly, Countess of Buena Vista, Cuba, against Maj. Gen. John E. Brooke, U. S. A., for $250,000 damages for having, while governor general of Cuba, deprived her of the hereditary right to slaughter all cattle for the city of Havana, Judge Holt, of the United States District Court, in New York, yesterday overruled a demurred filed by Charles W. Russell, as special assistant attorney general, representing Gen. Brooke, claiming that the facts alleged in the complaint did not constitute a cause for action.

Judge Holt, in overruling the demurrer, said that the act of Gen. Brooke "was a confiscation of the plaintiff's property, and was wholly unlawful, tortuous and unauthorized upon the part of the defendant, and that it was in contravention of the Spanish laws of 1759, and of the subsequent decree of the Spanish crown in 1878."

Judge Holt, in his opinion, says that the slaughtering right was purchased from the Spanish crown in 1728 by an ancestor of the plaintiff, who thereby became hereditary aiguacil mayor, or high sheriff, of Havana, with the perpetual privilege of slaughtering all the cattle killed in the city of Havana, and that this property right remained until the Spanish war.

In May, 1899, the Island of Cuba was under the military jurisdiction of the United States, under the treaty of Paris, made on December 10, 1898, the opinion states, and quotes a provision of the treaty which reads: "The relinquishment of Spanish sovereignty shall not be held to impair the property rights which by law belong to the peaceable possession of property of all kinds of private individuals of whatsoever nationality such individuals may be."

On May 20, 1899, Brig. Gen William Ludlow, governor of Havana, issued an order by which he declared the hereditary grant of the O'Reilly family terminated, and null and void, and transferred the right of slaughtering all the cattle, with its attendant profits, to the city of Havana. The plaintiff, then, the opinion states, appealed for redress to Gen. Brooke, as governor general of the island, who, on August 17, 1899, affirmed the order of Gen. Ludlow abolishing the office of alguacil mayor, with its special privileges.

Counsel for Gen. Brooke claimed the act of his client was purely a governmental act, and that he was exempt, therefore, from a private suit for damages for a governmental act. On this point Judge Holt said:

"I think under the decisions that the defendant is not exempt from personal liability in this action on the ground contended by his counsel that his order was an exercise of sovereign power. His act was not an act done by a military commander in time of war. The annulment by Gen. Brooke of the plaintiff's right to carry on the slaughtering business, and its transfer to the city of Havana, was not in its nature a military act, but was essentially an act done in the course of a civil administration."

CONDITIONS IN POLAND.

According to reliable information reaching Warsaw yesteaday, the Poland peasant revolt, in view of the fact that the peasants number 7,000,000 out of a total population of 10,000,000, will, if it spreads, result in disorder far greater than anything that has arisen during the present agitation.

The peasants hitherto have not figured to any great extent in this agitation, which is confined to the 2,000,000 workmen in the cities and towns. The socialists recently sent emissaries into the country districts for the purpose of stirring up the villages. According to reports they met with speedy success. As 75 per cent. of the peasants are unable to read, they are easily led away by socialistic oratory.

The movement began at Pruszka and extended at once to Piotzk. It first reached serious dimensions in the district of Siedlee, where a majority of the Greek Catholics or Uniats reside. These, being exceedingly embittered by religious persecution, quickly joined in the agitation, and approached the landed proprietors with a demand for an increase of 50 per cent. in their wages. Their demands being refused, they promptly struck. In many instances the peasant strikers resorted to violence. Disturbances have been reported from nearly 50 villages, where rikers burned government alcohol shops, the authorities making no attempt to interfere.

The peasants' real grievances are exclusively in connection with the language and economic questions, without any revolutionary ideas. They smart under the methods of the local bureaucracy in making obligatory the use of the Russian language, which they do not understand. It is stated that already 130 villages have declared that they will not receive official proclamations in the Russian language. While there appears to be no danger of a real peasant revolutionary movement, a general revolt against the compulsory use of the Russian language is greatly feared; and among well-informed men in Warsaw last night the situation was regarded as far from reassuring.

The police in 3 out the 12 districts of Warsaw demanded an increase of pay on Saturday. This was granted on Sunday, and all the policemen at once returned to their posts. The entire force is now working.

The authorities are instructing the military in police duty, in order to be prepared in the event of further disturbances, and consequently most of the policemen are accompanied on their beats by soldiers.

A Touching Story

is the saying from death of the baby girl of Geo. A. Eyler, Cumberland, Md. He writes: "At the age of 11 months, our little girl was in declining health, with serious Throat Trouble, and two physicians gave her up. We were almost in despair, when we resolved to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. The first bottle gave relief; after taking four bottles she was cured, and is now in perfect health." Never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; 50c and $1.00 guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Unequalled for Constipation.

Mr. A. R. Kane, a prominent druggist of Baxter Springs, Kansas, says: "Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are, in my judgment, the most superior preparation of anything in use today for constipation. They are sure in action and with no tendency to nauseate or gripe. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh: the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflammed tissue to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tried of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cts. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York, will mail it.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, FEB. 28, 1905.

A MEETING of the State Board of Education will be held in Richmond tomorrow to consider the advisability of consolidating certain school districts. It is hard to see what good could possibility come from such consolidation, while many reasons can be urged against the proposed procedure. Alexandria is decidedly averse to being either the head or tail of any school district, but desires to be let alone and continue to be in a position to attend to educational matters in its own way. This is a matter which should be more local than it really is, and consolidation would not only tend to derangement of the present regime, but is calculated to produce lethargy among those who have interested themselves for years in the public schools.

STEPS were taken last week in fifteen States toward the criminal prosecution of persons responsible for the existence of the beef trust, or monopoly of food products. At Chicago 165 witnesses were summoned to appear before a special grand jury, including J. Ogden Armour, Edward Morris, E A. Cudaby, Louis F. Swift, P. A. Valentine, Nelson Morris and other well-known packers. Similar summonses were made at St. Paul, Minneapolis, Boston, Philadelphia, Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City, Cleveland, Omaha, St. Louis and New Orleans. This concerted movement, it is said, came like a thunderbolt to the trust managers and it is hoped that their illegal combine may be smashed to smithereens, though it is feared that they can stand lightning as well as thunder.

THE PRESIDENT yesterday signed the joint resolution providing that the government shall return to the Southern States the Confederate flags captured during the civil war. The resolution has been hotly denounced by the talking members of the Grand Army of the Republic all over the North. The action of Mr. Roosevelt was in marked contrast to that of Mr. Cleveland, who countermanded the order he had issued for the return of the flags when he ascertained that certain posts of the Grand Army of the Potomac protested against such action. The "fighting" soldiers so far as known had nothing to say about the transfer of flags. The war ended when it ended for the fighters but for the talkers it still goes on.

ALTHOUGH to all unbiased men who read the evidence in the case of Judge Swayne, the carpet bag judge of the northern district of Florida, the charges made against him were proven, yet he was yesterday voted "not guilty" by a majority of the Senate before which body he was tried. The voting was mainly along party lines, only three republicans voting "guilty" with the democrats, while but two democrats voted with the republicans on the first count. As truly said by a democratic Congressman last week, if Judge Swayne were a democrat he surely would be found guilty. But being a republican covers a multitude of sins with republican Senators.

IT is said in Washington that an investigation will soon be started by the Postmaster General to ascertain who is responsible for the sale of the mining stock of a company at Toledo, Ohio, by rural letter carriers. The matter was brought to the attention of the postal department as a result of the dismissal of thirty Toledo rural carriers who were caught selling stock. If Mr. Wynne could continue Postmaster General he would break up much more of the rascality which prevades his department but unfortunately for the country he will retire from office next Saturday.

IN the current issue of his paper, Mr. W. J. Bryant asks if the President would not be in a better position to push his railway rate fight if he should refuse to accept further favors from the railroads. But Mr. Roosevelt so far has made no answer to the inquirendo.

THE ANNUAL pension appropriation bill passed by the House on February 18, authorizes an expenditure of $138,250,100 And this forty years after the war! No wonder it is said that pensioners are immortal.

THE German Reichstag cut the naval estimates for next year to $27,075,112. The U. S. Congress went Germany seventy-three millions better.

Turkish Troops Wreak Vengeance.

Belgrade, Servia, Feb. 28.—Turkish troops have visited condign punishment on the Bulgarian band of revolutionaries who a week ago killed a Servian land owner named Petrussa. The Turkish soldiers pursued the Bulgarians, and overtook them between Bsoua and Outliobegouig, and after a stiff fight the Bulgarian band was exterminated, including their leader, Boboff.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

A slight snow fall last night and a bleak wind this morning have not retarded the preparations for the inauguration. This morning an army of workmen began to construct "The Court of History" on Pennsylvania avenue in front of the White House, and many hundreds of palms were unloaded from incoming southern trains for use upon the line of march. The "Court of History" will be the showest portion of the city when completed. The heroic picture statues which were at the St. Louis exposition, will be set in place today. Immense wooden pedestals are being set in place, and when each pedestal has been surmounted by a great flagstaff bearing a banner the effect will be well worth seeing. The President's reviewing stand will be in the center of the Court of History. The work of decorating the President's stand will be completed within twenty-four hours and the inaugural committee is rushing the sale of tickets for the grand ball and various reviewing points.

The Senate today took the first step toward ordering an investigation of needed freight rate legislation during the recess of Congress, by referring to the committee on contingent expenses an appropriate resolution reported by the committee on interstate commerce, to the passing of which there is no opposition. The resolution provides that the committee on interstate commerce, or any sub committee thereof, shall sit during the recess, at such times and places as may suit its convenience, "to consider the question of additional legislation to regulate interstate commerce, and to authorize the Interstate Commerce Commission to fix rates of freights and fares, and to acquire further information as to interstate commerce, including violations or evasions of the anti-rebate law and the devices and methods by which such evasions are accomplished, and including refrigerator and other private car systems, industrial railway tracks, switching charges and the like." A full report of its proceedings must be submitted within ten days after the meeting of the next Congress.

The conferees on the Panama canal government bill had another meeting this morning. The House members still insist upon their provision abolishing the present canal commission, while the Senate representatives are arguing against the necessity of putting a specific proposition to that effect in the bill. This point is the only one upon which there is a difference of opinion between the two houses. It will probably be decided the way the House wants it, although a compromise has been suggested providing for the reduction of the number of the commissioners to three.

The Secretary of the Navy announced today that Rear Admiral James H. Sands has been designated for appointment to succeed Captain W. H. Brownson as superintendent of the Naval Academy at Annapolis. He will assume his new duties in June or July. Rear Admiral Francis W. Dickins will succeed Rear Admiral Sands in command of the Atlantic coast squadron.

The State Department was informed by cable this morning from Minister Russell, at Bogota, that the government of Colombia had appointed Senor Don Diego Mendoza minister to the United States. He will arrive about the middle of March, and will be the first minister Colombia has had here for three years, Concha being the last.

The subject of emergency contracts made by the Panama Canal Commission was discussed at the Cabinet meeting today. Secretary Taft, who has been conducting the inquiry into the alleged irregular methods of the commission, brought to the meeting a number of documents bearing on the subject. "Although Admiral Walker may have overstepped the limits of his authority just a trifle in giving out the awards without advertising for bids, I am of the opinion that an emergency existed and the Government was the gainer by the transaction" said Secretary Taft after the meeting. "The supplies he purchased were very urgently needed in the construction of the hospital and other buildings.

Ambassador McCormick officially informed the State Department from St. Petersburg today that the Russian government had degraded the officers of the Russian auxiliary cruiser Lena who had broken their paroles, and ordered them to return to San Francisco.

It is reported that Oscar J. Ricketts, now foreman of the printing at the Government Printing Office, will be appointed Public Printer when the term of the incumbent, F. W. Palmer, expires on March 4.

The Senate judiciary committee today made a report, written by Senator Spooner and approved by the democrats of the committee, declaring that there is no such thing as a "constructive recess." It is considered a rebuke to the President. The question arose in 1903, when the extra session merged into the regular session on December 7. The recess appointments of General Leonard Wood, Collector of Customs Crum, of Charleston, S. C., and others, had not been confirmed by the special session, and in order that they might not fail, the President held that there was a constructive recess between the two sessions and issued other recess commissions to the officers in question, thus continuing them in their advanced grades and salaries.

Referring the word "recess," the committee's report says: "It was evidently intended by the framers of the Constitution that it should mean something imaginary, something actual, not something fictitious. The constitutional provision that the commission of an officer shall expire at the end of the next session is self-executing, and when the session expires the right to hold under the commission expires with it. If there be no appreciable point of time between the end of one session and the beginning of another, the tenure under the commission as absolutely terminates, as if months of recess supervened. There was a moment when the President could not, had he chosen, have sent nominations to the Senate. There was no 'recess' within the letter or spirit of the Constitution, and therefore there was no right to issue commissions and induct the officers commissioned into office. The theory of 'constructive recess' constitutes a heavy draft upon the imagination for it involves a constructive ending of one session, a constructive beginning of another and a constructive recess between the two."

The chairman of one of the committees, which have in charge the arrangements for the inauguration of President Roosevelt, says that more that one hundred tickets have been sold to colored people who propose to attend the inaugural ball in the Pension building on Saturday night. Judson W. Lyons, colored, register of the treasury, says that he looks upon this as being the first inauguration in which the negro citizens of the United States would have a part commensurate with the importance of the colored man of the country in the citizenship.

Mrs. James Mason Hoppin died today at her home in New Haven, Conn. She was 80 years old. Mrs. Hoppin was one of the Daughters of the American Revolution and enjoyed a national reputation.

News of the Day.

Newell Boothby, the novelist, died in London yesterday from complications following an attack of influenza. He was born in 1867 in Adelaide, South Australia.

Representative Babcock, of Wisconsin, introduced a resolution yesterday authorising saloons in the District of Columbia to remain open Sunday, March 5, to accommodate inaugural visitors.

Senators E. J. Emmons, Harry Bunkers, Eli Wright and Frank French, of California, were expelled from the State Senate yesterday for the alleged receiving of bribes to aid building and loan associations.

Acting as secretary for the interchurch committee on marriage and divorce, which represents 18,000 persons throughout the United States and fifteen denominations, the Rev. Dr. William H. Roberts, of Philadelphia, yesterday sent to President Roosevelt an engrossed copy of the plans formulated by the committee for dealing with the divorce evil.

CONGRESSIONAL.

In the Senate yesterday the naval bill was discussed by Senators Gorman, McCumber, Blackburn, Carmack, Hall, Lodge, Martin, Perkins and Teller. Mr. Hale again criticised the too rapid increase of the navy, and Mr. Lodge defended the policy of the administration in foreign matters and in naval increase.

Mr. Martin defended the usefulness of battle-ships, and by so doing aroused several Senators, the debate resulting in general discussion of the relative sizes of the Russian and Japanese fleets. Mr. Hale declared that the result at Santiago would have been the same if the Oregon had not been there.

Mr. Carmack's motion to cut out one of the proposed battle-ships was voted down, 22 to 88.

An amendment directing the secretary of the navy to make an inquiry into the cost of armor plates and an armor plate plant, offered by Mr. Newlands, was accepted.

The bill then passed without further amendment. It carries an appropriation of $100,000,000.

The Indian appropriation bill was then considered at length, and was taken up again when the Senate met at 10 o'clock this morning.

With a handful of republicans, aided by the democrats, Representative Burton, of Ohio, yesterday gained complete control of the House, and forced an amendment to the sundry civil bill requiring the use of granite in the construction of the public building at Cleveland, his home town. Chairman Hemenway, of the appropriations committee, was put to rout, the presiding officer being twice overruled on an appeal from his decisions. The amendment, however, was not agreed to until Mr. Hemenway had exhausted unsuccessfully every means at his disposal to check the tide against him. In order to adopt the amendment it was necessary to revert to a page of the bill already passed over, a procedure also unusual. Seeing that he had been outflanked by Mr. Burton, Mr. Hemenway several times sought an adjournment after the bill had been reported to the House for favorable action, but his motions were voted down. So clearly were he and his followers in the minority that Mr. Hemenway interrupted a roll call to move the passage of the bill, which carried amid loud applause. The bill carries a total appropriation of $65,272,280. Earlier in the day the conference report on the army appropriation bill was agreed to, and a number of measures pertaining to the District of Columbia were passed.

JAPS CROSS THE SHAKHE RIVER

Undaunted by bitter weather and the desperate opposition of the Russians the Japanese are rigorously pushing their turning movements. They crossed the Shakhe river Sunday evening, having driven in the pickets of the Russian vanguard. The fighting in the vicinity of Tie Pass has been of the bloodiest character. Some Russian companies lost as high as 70 per cent. in killed and wounded in the Japanese bayonet charges.

General Kuropatkin reports that the Japanese have turned both flanks of the Russian force near Tsinketchen and they have also turned Kuropatkin's left at Kantie Pass. The attacks upon Tangu and Beydoling were repulsed. The Russians evacuated Tsinkhetchen February 24 and retired to Tie and Che passes.

The fighting at the passes, including Tie, Gonto, Vanzo and other defiles in the mountains, began February 19 and has continued ever since. General Kuropatkin has advanced far to the northward, with the object of cutting the railroad.

The position at Tsinkhetchen, about 70 miles east of Mukden, is far advanced in comparison with the general line, and the retirement of the Russians was only as far as the general alignment, but the dispatches intimate that the Japanese are now concentrating against the whole left flank, which is being heavily reinforced in preparation for extensive fighting.

The Russian third Pacific squadron, after coaling off Cherbourg, resumed its voyage toward the far East.

It was officially announced in St. Petersburg that, in view of the appearance of Japanese troops in the rear of the Russian army, west of the railway, Russia will address a circular to the powers protesting against Japan's persistent violations of China's neutrality.

COURT OF APPEALS.

The Court of Appeals of Virginia began the spring term in Richmond, today, and will be in session at least six weeks. The first case to be called is that of the Singer Manufacturing Company against Bryan, removed to Richmond from Wytheville. It is expected that the application for a new trial for Chas. R. Fishburn, of Roanoke, sentenced to five years in the penitentiary for the murder of Dr. Frederick Lefew, will be made early during the week.

LAWYER'S RACE AGAINST STORK.

The speed of an automobile and the machinery of the law were used in New York Saturday by a lawyer representing the Delano estate to carry out the last step in partition of that estate before the expected arrival of a new heir in the family of Mrs. Laura Astor Delano again tangled up the process of partition that the courts have taken months to straighten out. At least, this was the explanation made for he haste of the lawyer.

If a new heir had arrived before the judgment settling the division had been filed with the county clerk, a guardian would have had to be appointed for the baby, and a new partition suit would have been necessitated. This would have meant a lot of trouble and the additional expenditure of $10,000, it is said.

As soon as the judgment was entered in the Supreme Court the lawyer who filed the judgment paid over to Equity Clerk Newman $63, this big fee showing, it is said, that the judgment was the largest ever recorded in the county clerk's office. It shows that the property in this State alone left by Mrs. Delano amounted to almost $7,000,000. This will now be distributed among Mrs. Delano's heirs.

Mrs. Delano died at Geneva, Switzerland, June 15, 1902. She was a granddaughter of the first John Jacob Astor and sister of the second John Jacob Astor and William Astor. Her father, William B. Astor, left an estate estimated by the late Peter Cooper at $200,000,000. Part of this was accumulated while William B. was a member of the originial Astor firm with his father, but most of it was accumulated in the real estate business which William B. Astor entered after leaving his father's firm. He had erected several hundred stores and dwellings in New York city, and owned vast tracts of land there on the leading streets and avenues. Much of this was tied up in trust funds for the benefit of his children, and could not be sold during the life of Mrs. Delano.

He had inherited half a million dollars from his Uncle Henry and also held the Astor House in fee simple from his father. It was under the management of Mrs. Delano's father that the Astor estate grew into millions. He endowed the Astor Library, but left the bulk of his estate to his two sons, John Jacob Astor and William Astor. Mrs. Delano's share of the estate was placed in trust, and she received the income from the trust fund during her life. But she had received power to dispose of the trust fund by will, and it is this trust fund left by her father which will now be distributed with her own personal estate.

Her property in the State is estimated in the papers filed yesterday at $6,890,285. The portion of this left to her by her father in the State is given at $4,555,414. The Union Trust Company was named as trustee under the will. The property consists mostly of real estate situated in New York, although she owned considerable property at Monte Carlo. The property in New York includes the "old Cozine farm," which has been in the Astor family for many years. The value of the Cozine farm, as given in the papers filed Saturday, is $2,288,221. In addition to this the property to be divided among Mrs. Delano's heirs includes the following: Nos. 341, 343, 345 and 347 Fifth avenue, valued at $622,500; property at Sixth avenue and Seventeenth street, appraised at $920,447; personal property, $1,672.57. Mrs. Delano also left considerable property at Monte Carlo, where she resided for many years.

By the judgment the estate will be held for most of the heirs for life. John Hubert de Steurs, Margaret de Steurs Oberndorff and Herbert de Steurs are to share $1,148,380, each of them receiving $382,793.33. The eight children of Mrs. Margaret Aster Chanler are to receive $5,741,904. These heirs, who are to receive $717,733 each, are: John Astor Chanler, the committee of whose estate, Thomas T. Sherman, is to receive his share; Winthrop A. Chanler, Elizabeth Winthrop Chapman, William A. Chanler, Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler, Margaret L. Chanler, Robert W. Chanler and Alice Beekman Emmet.

The fees to be paid to the executors, John Jacob Astor, Mrs. Delano's nephew, Warren Delano, jr., and Franklin B. Lord, are $100,000. The expenses of settling the estate are given at $10,000.

Murdered by Her Admirer.

Daniel Herman, a Chicago policeman, shot and instantly killed a schoolteacher, Miss Minnie Mulveil, on the street yesterday. Miss Mulveil was a teacher in St. James' Parochial School. While walking home from school she was approached by Herman. The two spoke together for sometime. Finally angry voices were heard. Herman was seen to draw a revolver, point it directly at the teacher and fire. Miss Mulveil fell dead on the sidewalk. Miss Mulveil, who was 23 years of age, was not regularly employed as a teacher, but had assisted the corps of instructors since her graduation from St. James' School. She was a daughter of John Mulveil, who died several years ago, leaving an estate of $150,000. Her uncle, William Mulveil, died last year and left an estate valued at $70,000. Miss Mulveil, one of the heirs, was made executrix. That the shooting was caused by the young woman's refusal to marry Herman, was the statement of John C. Schubert, an intimate friend of the Mulveil family. "Herman has for a long time been persecuting Miss Mulveil," said Mr. Schubert. "She often told me that she hated to go on the street, and that it seemed as if Herman spent his time watching the house. Try as she would she could not get rid of the man. Once she told me that Herman stopped her on the street and threatened to kill her if she would not marry him." Herman was never received at the Mulveil home, it is said.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Feb. 28.—A sharp flurry took place soon after the opening of the stock market and prices broke sharply under heavy profit taking, the effect of which was accentuated by a bear attack. The movement was regarded as the natural result of the distributive sales of yesterday. In the second hour the speculation quieted down, but the traders were apparently mixed in their views and the larger bull interests appeared to be holding aloof.

Today's Telegraphic News

Situation in Russia.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 28.—The situation as regards reforms is as enigmatical as at any time since these reforms were proposed. The Czar and his officials seem unable to decide just what would be the best stand to take relative to the granting of political and economic concessions to the people. Czar Nicholas himself vacillates daily, between reform and reaction. In the morning he may express an intention of summoning a representative assembly, while by evening he has determined to relist the popular demands. This state of affairs prevails through all the government departments. As a result it is impossible to state definitely or even make an attempt at a guess as to what the future holds for the people.

The distribution of a revolutionary proclamation in the lecture room of the Women's University, today, led to considerable disorder. One of the girl students, the daughter of a high Manchurian official, mounted a desk, and addressing her fellow students, said it was disgraceful to encourage revolutionary agitation at home while the father land is engaged in a war. She showed her resentment by tearing the proclamation in pieces. The other girls caught the speaker by her arms and throwing her to the floor beat her until she was senseless. The unfortunate girl was taken to a hospital in a dangerous condition. Scenes similiar to this have induced the council of ministers to appoint a committee to revise the present laws and draw up new statutes safeguarding public property and life and insuring order.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 28.—The authorities assert they have proofs that the revolutionaries have received contributions from abroad to aid them in carrying on their propaganda. From America, it is stated, $300,000 has been received; from England a like amount; from Germany $50,000; from France, $25,000; and from Austria, $70,000.

The Czar has decided to appoint Grand Duke Constantine Minister of Education, to succeed M. Glasow. Constantine is the most liberal and most enlightened of the Grand Dukes and his appointment is taken to indicate that the Czar is desirous of reforms in this department.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg this evening states that both the Russian centre and right were engaged today, while the heavy fighting of the past few days on the Russian left was continued. This fighting on the right and in the centre means one of two things. Either Oyama is keeping these forces engaged to prevent their being sent to reinforce the forces on the left, or he is trying to get a wedge in at the centre and break the strength of the forces of General Kuropatkin both here and at the left.

Moscow, Feb. 28.— The strike movement today had an addition to its supporters by the striking of 17,000 workmen at the Assanaroff factory.

The War in the East.

Tokio, Feb. 28.—A dispatch from the front today states that the Russian losses during the fight at Tsinchenchen on the extreme Japanese right on February 23, were 2,000 killed and wounded. The Japanese losses were slight.

London, Feb. 28.—The attention of military experts and European officials is today directed toward the far East, where what may be the final campaign of the Russo-Japanese war is beginning. Field Marshal Oyama, the Japanese commander, is, to all appearances, moving his forces with the object of resuming the fight just where he was compelled to stop at the beginning of the winter, after failing in his attempt to drive General Kuropatkin across the Hun river. In the new fight Oyama seems to have the better of the argument. The Japanese are now in possession of Ta Pass, which is regarded of prime importance in the new campaign. It bears the same relation to the operations against Mukden as Motien Pass did to the operations against Liao Yang. With this much accomplished, a great battle is momentarily expected for the control of the whole of the Ta mountain range, which at present serves as the real key to the Russian defenses of Mukden. If Field Marshal Oyama succeeds in driving Kuropatkin from this range, the Russian commander will be compelled to retreat from Mukden toward Tie Pass, with the odds favoring a great Japanese victory.

Sun's Eruption Ominous.

Pittsburg, Feb. 28.—John R. Brashear, the Allegheny astronomer, famed throughout the world, yesterday made the announcement that an immense groupe of spots had made its appearance on the eastern meridian of the sun, and that the spots covered an area of 3,000,000,000 square miles. He says they made their appearance at 9 a. m., Sunday, and that they are more active than those which appeared on the sun last month. He said: "While last year showed 126 different groups of spots on the surface of the sun, this group, from its magnitude, is likely to cause some disturbance of moment in atmospheric conditions later on."

Would Carry out the Osler Idea.

Trenton, Feb. 28.—The lower branch of the legislature had a little fun last night when Assemblyman Manners, of Essex, with the greatest gravity, offered a resolution establishing chloroforming stations for useless officials of the State. It was given little attention at first, but the Osler idea suddenly dawned on a few and spread, until the chamber was in an uproar. All members of the legislature above the age of 60 years, all Assemblymen under 30 years and all office-holders who decline to resign when others seek their places are included in the resolution which Speaker Avis sent to the committee on State home for girls.

"Hind-Leg" Farm.

Reading, Pa., Feb. 28.—William K. Rothenberger and James Devlin, Reading capitalists, have returned from an extensive visit through the South, where they are interested in real estate. At Essick, N. C., the former ordered 4,000 frogs, which will be shipped to this city and placed in his private ponds, near Leisz's bridge. Mr. Rothenberger will engage in the business of raising frogs for the city markets.

Peculiar Disappearance.

Attack on the Mormons.

Washington, D. C. Feb. 28.—"Utah secured her statehood by a solemn compact made by Mormon leaders in behalf of themselves and their people. That compact has been broken frequently. No apostle of the Mormon Church has publicly protested against that violation." This was the text of a speech on the floor of the Senate today by Mr. Kearns (rep.) of Utah, his last utterance in the chamber before retiring from public life next Saturday. The announced intention of Senator Smoot's colleague of exposing his views on the Mormon question drew a large audience to hear the "swan song" of the gentleman from Utah.

"In what I say there is malice toward none, and I hope to make it just to all," he declared. "If the present day does not accept my statements and appreciate my motives, I can only trust that time will prove more gentle and that in the future those who care to revert to these remarks will know that they are animated purely by a hope to bring about a better understanding between Utah and this great nation.

"Utah was admitted to statehood after and because of, a long series of pledges, exacted from the Mormon leaders, the like of which has never before been known in American history. Except for those pledges, the sentiment of the United States would never have assented to Utah's admission. As a citizen and a Senator I give my word of honor to you that I believed that these pledges would be kept in the spirit in which Congress and the country accepted them, and that there would never be any violation, evasion, denial or equivocation concerning them." The Senator then declared in most positive terms that not only had these pledges been repeatedly and wilfully violated, but that no Mormon leader ever publicly protested against the violation.

Passing to the consideration of the social relation, Senator Kearns declared that nearly every man of the governing class in the Mormon Church is or had been a polygamist.

Referring to the alleged Mormon control of politics, Senator Kearns said: "Parties are nothing to these leaders except as parties may be used by them. No man can be elected to either house of Congress against their wish."

Reverting to the charge that the leaders of the church are or have been polygamists, Mr. Kearns stated: "The last apostle elected within a few months past is a polygamist—Charles W. Penrose, and his law breaking career is well known." In conclusion Senator Kearns said: "It is the duty of this body, the Senate of the United States, to serve notice on this church monarchy that they must live within the laws; that the nation is supreme; that the institutions of this country must prevail throughout the land; and that compacts upon which statehood is granted must be preserved inviolate."

Executions of Murderers.

Philadelphia, Feb. 28.—Charles Yarnall was hanged this morning in Moyamensing prison for the murder of Bella Boyce, his common-law wife. Yarnall's crime was one of the most dastardly on record here. His victim was but 22 years of age. She was a woman of the streets. Yarnell who had been a baseball player, met her and she became infatuated with him, supporting him in idleness. On the night of May 7, 1903, Bella and Yarnall had a quarrel over money. The young woman, who had grown used to cuffs and blows, was lying upon a lounge attired in a flimsy gown. Her seeming indifference angered her lover, and when she fell asleep, Yarnall, with deliberate fiendishness, took a lighted lamp from the wall and coolly unscrewing the top, poured the oil upon her dress and set her on fire. She fell to the floor, begging for mercy and assistance. Yarnall refused to aid her and she was roasted almost to a crisp before help arrived.

Allentown, Pa., Feb 28.—Eugene Bloch, convicted of the murder of his paramour, Mrs. Katie Fatsinger, in this city, in August, 1903, was hanged in the jail here this morning. The drop fell at 10:20 o'clock. Bloch left a written statement in which he declared that he was innocent of the crime, and that the woman first cut his throat and then her own.

Zionism Denounced.

Berlin, Feb. 28.—The annual meeting of the Association of German Jews was held today, with municipal councillor Dr. Nathan presiding. The report of the association showed that it commands a fund of $175,000 for the purpose of assisting poverty stricken Jews, and a special fund of $6,500 for Russian Jews. During a debate of the Russian Jew emigration question, Chairman Nathan declared the semitic problem would never be solved by emigration. He denounced Zionism as a mischievous movement. James Simon, probably the most prominent of the German Jews, endorsed Dr. Nathan's denunciation of Zionism. The Zionist Jews, it is expected, will issue a counter manifesto.

Wedding.

London, Feb. 28.—A large and fashionable assembly gathered at all Saints Church, today, at the wedding of Gerard Lowther British Minister to Morocco, and Miss Alice Blight, of Philadelphia. Those present included American Ambassador Choate, and Baron Hayashi, the Japanese Minister. Mr. Lowther is well known and well liked in America. He was for some time secretary of the British Embassy, at Washington, and while there was most popular in diplomatic circles.

Plucky Girl Fights off Robber.

Trenton, Feb. 28.—While alone in her home, Miss Clara Barker, aged 17 years, a pretty girl, who lives with her parents at No. 1014 Chestnut avenue, had a struggle with a burglar early yesterday evening. The man, who carried a dark lantern, grabbed the girl in a second-story room and severely choked her. She struggled loose and screamed, frightening the robber off.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Fifty-Eighth Congress.

Washington, Feb. 28.

SENATE.

The pressure of business during the final days of a session was plainly manifested in the Senate today.

There was a hustle and bustle entirely foreign to its usual methods of deliberation. At times the confusion grew so great that demands of members for recognition could not be heard by the presiding officer.

The President was authorized to extend to foreign governments the grateful appreciation of the United States for their participation in the St. Louis Exposition.

A resolution, accepting the invitation to Congress to attend the opening of the Lewis and Clark Exposition at Portland, Oregon, May 1, and providing for the appointment of a joint committee of ten senators and fifteen representatives to represent the government, was agreed to.

The final conference report on the District of Columbia appropriation bill was agreed to.

A resolution favorably reported by the committee on foreign relations, authorizing Secretary of State Hay to accept a decoration, the grand cross of the National order of the Legion of Honor, from the French government, went over on objection of Mr. Spooner.

Mr. Stewart got up the Indian appropriation bill. He gave way to Mr. Kearns (Utah), who in talking to the Dubois resolution providing for a prohibitive polygamy amendment to the constitution, read from manuscript a severe criticism of Mormon rule.

HOUSE.

The House met at 11 o'clock. A bill was passed setting aside thirty per cent. of the public lands of the Philippines to be sold for the benefit of the island schools.

Peter D. Byerly died at his home near Harrisonburg, yesterday, after a short illness of peneumonia, at the age of 54 years.

Mrs. Lydia Filler, widow of Col. A. T. M. Filler, of Lovettsville, Loudoun county, died at her home near Leesburg, on Saturday evening, aged 74 years.

James Carper, aged sixty-two, a well-known resident of Frederick county, died Saturday after a brief illness of pneumonia. He leaves a widow and a son.

Mrs. Mary E. Cloud died at her home at Upperville Saturday, after a brief illness, of pneumonia. She was ninety-two years old; was the oldest citizen of Upperville.

John T. Hill, United States Consul at San Juan del Norte, Nicaragua, and who died a few days ago at his post of duty, was the only son of Dr. Charles J. Hill and brother of Mrs. W. W. Harper and Miss Miriam Hill, of Orange county.

Mr. J. Jenkyn Davies, Secretary of the Virginia Horse Show Association, has called a meeting of the association for Friday, March 10th, at the New Willard Hotel, in Washington. The date for the Manassas horse show will likely be set between the 13th and the 25th of July.

Dr. S. Delancy Hicks, the specialist, who is in jail at Newport News, on the charge of forgery, attempted to commit suicide in his cell Saturday. The doctor has been in a bad state of mind for some time and it has been evident that he is either unbalanced or shamming. Early Saturday morning Julius Lane, an old white man, who is servingsix months for larceny, heard a peculiar noise in the doctor's cell, and, upon investigation, discovered the specialist hanging to the bars by a small cotton rope. Lane quickly lowered Dr. Hicks to the floor and he revived in a short time.

COLLAPSE OF A CHURCH.

Eleven persons were killed and upward of fifty injured, some probably fatally, by the collapse of the flooring of the Fleet Street African Methodist Church, in Brooklyn, N. Y., last night. Of those killed, eight were women, two were men, and one was a child. The building was an ancient ramshackle frame structure, erected sixty years ago in the heart of the colored section of Brooklyn in Fleet street, near Myrtle avenue. The cause of the collapse was the decayed condition of the beams and supports of the flooring.

Arrangements had been made last night to hold funeral services of Sydney L. Payter, one of the founders of the church, and the auditorium, which is on the second floor of the building, the ground floor being used for the Sunday-school, was crowded with an audience of upward of 300 persons, of whom the majority were women.

The congregation was waiting in silence for the arrival of the body, and Pastor Jacobs was standing at the altar awaiting the summons to meet the funeral procession at the door, when a sharp cracking of timbers was heard, and in an instant the half of the auditorium nearest the door collapsed, carrying down more than a hundred persons, who were crushed in the wreckage of the flooring and pews.

A great volume of dust for a few moments hid from view the victims. The remainder of the audience, finding themselves cut off from the door, and expecting every instant that the rest of the flooring would collapse under them fought madly to reach the windows and in some instances leaped from them and sustained serious injuries.

On the arrival of the police and firemen the work of rescue began. Those remaining uninjured on the portion of the floor remaining intact were taken from the windows by ladders. Those lying in the mass of wreckage on the lower floor could only be got at after the firemen had hewed their way to them with axes.

Out of the wreck ten bodies were recovered and taken to a station-house, and about thirty removed to the Brooklyn Hospital, where three women died soon after being admitted. All the ambulances in Brooklyn were called out, and about a score of those hurt were able to go home after their injuries had been attended to.

Heartrending scenes were witnessed at the station-house, which was thronged with relatives and friends, who came to identify the dead.

About 150 seats in the front of the church had been reserved for the mourners, who were to accompany the body. This led to the massing of the congregation in one place and a consequent concentration of weight on the rotten floor beams, which is believed to have been the immediate cause of the collapse.

Local Matters.

Sun rises tomorrow at 6:34 and sets 5:53. High water at 3:44 a. m. and 4:11 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday; light northwest to west winds.

The River.

There was no apparent change in conditions on the river this morning. The embargo was as pronounced as ever. The ice in the main channel has been broken up from most of the docks to the Maryland flats, but the fragments congeal almost immediately. Steam vessels, however, encounter no serious difficulty in passing up and down.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad transfer service has been renewed, and the tugboat Major Brewerton tows the barge to and from Shepherd's as usual.

The Norfolk steamer arrived up at about ten o'clock this morning.

The United States steamer Prairie, from Norfolk, arrived up today and anchored off Alexandria. She brought a large number of seamen to Washington who will participate in the inaugural parade. Capt. Luckett, formerly of the steamer Norfolk, piloted the Prairie up the river. Shortly after the Prairie dropped anchor she fired a salute.

Government tugboats with heavy barges continue to make trips from Washington to Indian Head proving grounds.

The ice extends from Washington to Maryland Point. Beyond that locality it does not afford a great barrier, as much of it is on the move. It is also said that the ice is being moved by the tide near Fort Washington.

Intelligence from the lower Potomac is to the effect that most of the wharves on the Virginia side of the river have been carried away or seriously damaged by moving ice.

Among the fleet now in Hampton Roads is the Swedish bark Manlock, bound to Alexandria with a cargo of bone from Buenos Ayres, Argentine Republic. The Manlock sailed from the river Platte January 9 and, as heretofore stated in the Gazette, anchored in the Roads February 18. Her cargo of bone will be converted into fertilizer at the Bryant Fertilizer Works in this city.

Sent on to Grand Jury.

Dr. Ashton, coroner of Alexandria county, yesterday held an inquest over the remains of Gus Wilburn, colored, who was shot and killed by William Wright, alias William Lewis, also colored, in a saloon near Arlington junction last Saturday night. Wright was arrested Sunday by Constable John Cornell, and was lodged in the jail at Fort Myer Heights. Wright was at once arraigned before Justice J. R. Hogan, and after a preliminary examination was sent on to the grand jury, which was in session and by which he was promptly indicted. Wilburn is said to have come from Jacksonville, Fla. He has been employed as a laborer near Arlington junction about a month. Dr. Ashton held an autopsy of the remains of Wilburn at Mr. B. Wheatley's undertaking establishment today. It was found that the pistol ball had entered the left eye of the deceased and passed almost entirely through the head.

Adventure With an Overcoat.

A young man a few nights ago hung his overcoat on a hook fastened to the wall, sat down at a table, and ate a hearty meal.

When he rose from the table he went to get his coat.

On the hook where he had hung it he found a disreputable old garment, with a greasy collar, a hole in one elbow, a torn place in the back, and half the buttons missing.

Thrusting his hand into an inside pocket, he found a couple of folded papers.

He took them out and opened them.

One was a notification that the owner had been drawn on a jury, and the other was a dun for $3.50 from a shoe merchant.

It was his overcoat, all right.

Removing Ice and Snow.

Laborers were engaged today in removing the ice and snow from King street. The cakes taken from the roadway ranged in size from a yard square to pieces the size of one's fists. Some of the pieces were eight inches thick. On some squares the spaces between the electric railway tracks and curbs were rendered impassable, blocks of ice, resembling broken stone in appearance, being piled on both sides of the street several feet high. The ice is being removed to other localities in carts. Many onlookers have suggested that snow should be removed from the roadway soon after it has fallen, and thus prevent the use of pick and shovel which is rendered inevitable after it remains a few days.

Fire Last Night.

At 1:15 this morning the house occupied by Mr. James W. Smithers, railway flagman at the intersection of Fayette and Oronoco streets, was found to be burning. An alarm was sent to the engine houses over the telephone and in a few minutes' time all the city apparatus was on the scene. The engines, however, did not go into service, as the small structure was soon destroyed. The fire is supposed to have resulted from an overheated stove. The city fire bells were not rung and but few persons were aware of the fact that a fire was raging.

Repetition of Drama.

Owing to the fact that a great number of people who were unable to obtain suitable seats at the presentation of the drama "Ten Nights in a Barroom" for the benefit of Mr. Wayne Byers, on February 20, and numerous requests having been made for the company to repeat the performance, it has been decided to comply with the wishes of the friends of the amateurs who appeared on that occasion, and on next Tuesday night, the last day before Lent, the drama will be presented.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Lem Manley, colored, arrested by Officer Bettis charged with assaulting Julia Jackson, was fined $2.50.

Two young men charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $2.50 each.

The City Council meets tonight.

Washington Sewage.

Mayor Paff and City Attorney Boothe have addressed letters to Congressman Rixey protesting against the placing of the outlet of the Washington sewer at a point near the Bellevue magazine wharf, on the Maryland side of the river, a short distance north of the city of Alexandria, and have suggested that the sewer be continued about three miles south of Jones's point. Col. Biddle, Engineer Commissioner, however, has approved a report of acting Superintendent of Sewers Phillips, stating that Alexandria need have no apprehension as to the pollution of the river by the discharge of the Washington outfall sewer above the city, and, further, that to extend this outfall below the city would mean an outlay of millions of dollars, from which neither city would be benefited.

Mayor Paff, City Engineer Dunn, Health Officer Gorman and City Attorney Boothe went to Washington today and had an interview with Senator Martin in regard to the construction of the sewer. With the Senator they appeared before Commissioner Biddle and laid the matter before him, stating that if the sewer was constructed as proposed the maximum of the polution of the river would be just off Alexandria. The interview with Col. Biddle was rather unsatisfactory as that officer held that the sewage would not be injurious to Alexandria unless the water was used for drinking purposes.

He also held that as Congress had fixed the site for the outlet of the sewer, that settled the matter with him. As the navy department has raised objection to the sewer outlet being fixed near the naval magazine wharf, the Alexandrians went to Mr. Rixey and asked him to take the matter up with that department. Both Senator Martin and Congressman Rixey promised to do all in their power in the interest of the people of Alexandria.

Personal.

Mrs. Arthur Veeder Snell will be at home at The Kanawha, in Washington, Wednesday, March 1, and will be assisted in receiving by Mrs. W. R. Vance, Mrs. Hugh Caldwell, Mrs A. Barnes Hooe, and Miss Georgia Forrest Greene.

Miss Emma Stewart, of Richmond, is visiting her nephew, Dr. Stewart Jamieson, on Columbus street.

Mr. Ashby Miller, formerly of this city, but more recently of Richmond, will leave here today for Detroit, Mich., where he will locate. His wife and children, who are now in Richmond, will go to Detroit in April.

Engineer William Moore, who was recently injured in an accident on the Manassas branch of the Southern Railway, has improved considerably.

Mrs. Park Agnew, who has been quite sick for some time, continues to improve.

Mr. Bernard Fitzpatrick, of Washington, and Miss Ruth Rodgers, daughter of Mr. Jos F. Rodgers, will be married tomorrow evening.

Miss Mary Wallace Pollard, daughter of Mr. F. J. Pollard, of this city, and Dr. Arthur Barton Crane, of Washington, will be married tonight at 8 o'clock, in the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

Circuit Court for the County.

[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.]

The time of the court was again occupied today with the trial of Mary J. Tillman, colored, indicted for murder.

The grand jury yesterday returned the following indictments:

Thos. Williams, colored, two indictments for assault with intent to kill.

Joe Gardner, colored, for poisoning his wife.

E. J. Marcy, for assault.

Wm. Lewis, for murder.

A. B. East, for embezzling public funds.

G. H. Fields, for housebreaking.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late Alfred H. Roberts, who died at his residence, "Epsawasson" near Mount Vernon, Friday last, took place this evening from the old family home, "Cameron," near this city, and was largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. J. G. Cornell, of Baltimore, of the Friends' Church, assisted by Rev. Everard Meade, of Pohick Church and Rev. S. A. Wallis, of the Episcopal Theological Seminary. The pallbearers were Messrs. J. N. Gibbs, A. L. Lukens, F. H. Wilkerson, J. P. H. Mason, Reuben Gillingham and A. R. Harrison. The interment, which was private, was in Ivy Hill Cemetery.

For the Kindergarten.

The directors of the Alexandria Kindergarten having found it necessary to raise money for the running expenses of the kindergarten, have decided to sell sandwiches in Washington on the 4th of March. Those desiring to assist will confer a favor by sending sandwiches on Friday to Mrs. John Leadbeater, 504 Prince street.

Property Sale.

Mr. T. H. Netherland has sold to Mrs. Sallie P. Lozano his residence on the east side of Alfred street between Cameron and Queen for $4,500. It is understood that Mr. Netherland, who for some time past has been chief stenographer at the White House, in Washington, will remove his residence to that city.

Against Consolidation.

A large majority of citizens of the county have united in a petition to the State Board of Education, protesting against a consolidation of that county with any other school district.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

Mrs. Hanna Prince, wife of Mr. Abraham D. Prince, of the jewelry firm of R. Harris & Co, of Washington, was fatally injured last night at the Pennsylvania Railroad depot by being crushed beneath the wheels of a train. She died in the ambulance of the Emergency Hospital, on the way to that institution.

Mr. and Mrs. Prince were at the railroad station for the purpose of seeing Mrs. Prince's mother, Mrs. Ida Schiff, who was returning to her home, after an extended stay in Washington, safely on train No. 33, of the Southern Railway, which left Washington at 9:59 o'clock. When the train for Charlotte was announced, Mrs Prince and her husband accompanied Mrs. Schiff through the gates, and entered the train with her, she being assigned a berth in the Pullman car on the rear end.

By the time Mrs. Schiff was comfortably seated the train began to move. Mr. Prince, thinking his wife was following him, went to the front platform of the car and stepped off. When he discovered the absence of his wife the train had gained considerable headway, and, believing that she would not attempt to get off, he started to the telegraph office for the purpose of telegraphing her that he knew that she had remained on the train, and telling her to get off at Alexandria, to which point he would take an electric car and return with her to Washington.

Mrs. Prince, however, not realizing the danger, had stepped off the moving car. In alighting, it is thought that her dress caught on the steps, and that she was thrown under the car. No one witnessed the accident, and the train proceeded on its way, the mother in total ignorance of what had occurred.

Almost immediately, however, the accident was discovered, and a call was sent to the Emergency Hospital for an ambulance, which arrived in a short time. The return to the hospital was made with all possible speed, but Mrs. Prince died before it was reached.

Mr. Prince was prostrated with grief over the unfortunate accident, and was given medical treatment to prevent his collapse. He was assisted to his home by friends.

Mrs. Prince was forty-five years of age, and is survived by her mother, husband and two grown daughters. She had resided in Washington for more than twenty years.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The failure of W. J. Donovan was announced in the New York Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange today.

Henry Greenfield, a member of the firm of J. Weinbeager & Co., dealers in groceries and provisions, at Mont Clair, N. J., shot himself in the head and heart, today, at the Coleman House, Newark. Much mystery surrounds the shooting, as the accounts of the suicide are all right.

Joseph Barondess, the revolutionist and east side leader, of New York, who is said to have predicted the assassination of the Grand Duke Sergius, is quoted today as saying that before another month passes, two reactionaries in the Russian government will meet the fate of Sergius and von Plehve.

Miss Julia Bowne, who eloped from her home at South River, N. J, with Rev. J. F. Cordova, pastor of the Conklin Methodist Episcopal Church, last spring, is again missing. She left home last Saturday night. The girl eluded her father by leaving the house, saying she was going out for but a moment. That was the last seen of her by her parents.

The extensive plant of the Iron Clad Manufacturing Company, Williamsburg, New York, was destroyed by fire early this morning. The building contained several tanks of whale oil and the explosion of these did great damage, endangering the lives of a number of residents in the tenements near by. The buildings were owned by Mrs. Robert Seaman, better known as Miss Nellie Bly, the former newspaper writer. The Italions living in the tenements across the street, became excited at the explosion and a number of the men ran to the window and began firing revolvers into the street. The fire box is in front of these buildings and owing to the flying bullets, no one dared approach to turn in an alarm. Thus much valuable time was lost. The loss will amount to over $100,000.

Three unknown men were killed today one mile east of Cumberland, Md., by a Baltimore and Ohio passenger train. The dead men had been employed on the Wabash Railroad and were walking along the track. Ed. Hoye, who says he lives in New York, was injured. He states that the other men belonged in Philadelphia and in Cleveland, Ohio, but their names are not known by him. The accident occurred as the train was rounding a curve and it is alleged the men were intoxicated.

"Looked Like a Tub?"

Is a seam down the back of a woman's Eton coat good style or not?

Did the black velvet costume which Mrs. Genevieve Miller ordered of Mrs. Elizabeth Burke, a dressmaker, cause Mr. Miller to remark that it made his wife "look like a tub?"

These questions were argued yesterday before Justice Hoffman in New York in a suit by Mrs. Miller's husband to recover $98.91 paid for a black velvet gown which she had accepted under protest.

"Didn't you wear that dress to a social affair, and after you got home, didn't your husband say it made you look like a tub?" asked the lawyer of the defendant.

"My husband would not use such language. He said it made me look large."

Mrs. Burke said that when the plaintiff brought the dress back she was stouter then before. She said Mrs. Miller had quoted her husband as saying the dress made her look life a tub.

Justice Hoffman reserved decision.

Everybody's for March has been received from its publishers in New York and is one of the most up-to-date and effective editions of this always good magazine. This month the author of "Frenzied Finance" plunges directly into "Coppers," explains the situation out of which the amalgamated was evolved, etc. In the second instalment of "The Greatest Trust in the World" is shown the source of the trust in the refregerator-car. An entertaining article on "The Jewel Crafts of India" is given, and "The After Dinner Speakers" is handled with the wit and color the subject suggests. "The Fourth of March" gives features of presidential inaugurations from the time of Washington. Other clever well written articles and fiction of a high standard complete this issue.

WATCHES AND JEWELRY

HOW ABOUT YOUR WATCH?

Is it keeping time to the dot? or do you have to do a good deal of guessing in order to figure out the real time?

An important part of our business is taking care of watches—exact, careful repairing of all kinds—no guess work.

Let us put your watch in order. We will clean it thoroughly, correct any faults it may have and our charge will be moderate.

TUESDAY EVENING, FEB. 28, 1905.

Waiting His Turn.

"Well, Jack," said his chum after Jack had proposed to the most popular girl in the town, "is it all right?"

"Well," said Jack ruefully, "I can hope—that's all."

"What did she say?"

"She said she'd file my proposal with all the others and consider it when she got down to it."

His Lack of Tact.

Barnes—Howes is a pretty good sort of fellow. Shedd—Yes, but he hasn't got any tact. At the restaurant the other day he asked me if I was fond of cats, and I was eating rabbit stew at the time! The idea of asking such a question at such a time as that!—Boston Transcript.

Eminently Qualified.

Practical Aunt—Do you think you are qualified to become the wife of a poor man? The Confident Girl—Oh, yes; it's all settled. We are to live in a cottage, and I know how to make cottage pudding already.

The Servant Problem.

"What has been the greatest difficulty with which you have had to contend, Mrs. Kinder, in your struggle with the servant girl problem?"

"Preventing the good ones getting married."

A Chronic Habit.

"No," said the man who had recently made his fourth pilgrimage to the matrimonial altar; "I can't say that marriage is a failure."

"Of course not," rejoined his bachelor friend. "With you it is merely a habit."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Then He Went.

Father (at head of stairs)—Ethel, what time is it? Ethel (in drawing room)—It's a quarter past 10, father. Father—All right. Don't forget to start the clock again after the young man goes out to get his breakfast.

An Anxious Query.

A certain New York restaurant has become famous for its high prices. At the entrance a man just leaving, having paid his bill, was recently overheard to ask the waiter, "I say—do you charge anything for going out?"

Generously Thoughtful.

Ragson Tatters—Say, boss, gimme the price of a meal. I'm nearly starStingfman—Can't do it, me poor fellow, but the next man you ask may, so here's a toothpick.—Exchange.

Restful.

Laura—Alice Flitter is such a restful friend. Charles—Restful? She talks all the time. Laura—That's it. I never have to think about what to say when I'm with her.

Alimony.

Johnny—Pa, what is alimony? Pa—Alimony is the pension paid to the best fighter.—Exchange.

Every one has to clap his hands in applause when he doesn't mean it, but it is a pleasing sort of hypocrisy.—Atchison Globe.

Public is Aroused.

The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach; liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters, of 546 St. Clair Ave., Columbus, O., writes: "For several months I was given up to die. I had fever and ague, my nerves were wrecked; I could not sleep, and my stomach was so weak, from useless doctors' drugs, that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters I obtained relief, and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c.

Give Your Stomach a Rest.

Your food must be properly digested and assimilated to be of any value to you. If your stomach is weak or diseased take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and gives the stomach a rest, enabling it to recuperate, take on new life and grow strong again. Kodol cures sour stomach, gas, blotting, heart palpitation and all digestive disorders. Sold by all druggists.

Bad breath, belching of gas and sour risings are due to Indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a guaranteed cure. L. A. Soper of Little Rock, Ky., writes us: "We feel that Kodol Dyspepsia Cure deserves all the commendations that can be given it, as it saved the life of our little girl when she was three years old. She is now six and we have kept it for her constantly, but of course she only takes it now when any thing disagrees with her." Kodol is the best medicine in the world for Indigestion, Dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. A trial of this greatest of all digestants will convince any who suffers. Good for young or old. Sold by all druggists

New York Daily Tribune.

If you are looking for a daily history of the world, carefully collated and sifted and presented in the most attractive form that the facts and the laws of good taste will permit, you cannot make any mistake in reading the Tribune every day. It contains special articles on nearly every subject which is supposed to interest intelligent and clean-minded people, to say nothing of the illuminating and instructive editorial articles and reviews of books, music and the drama. Invest $1 and get the daily and Sunday Tribune by mail for a month. With the Sunday Tribune goes a handsome illustrated supplement and a magazine, with colored covers, equal to anything sold for ten cents.

New York Tribune Farmer

The Tribune Farmer has no superior anywhere as a publication for farmers and their families. Everything worth knowing about the theory or practice of farming is treated by men recognized as experts in their various lines. It keeps the farmer in touch with all the latest improvement by text and pictures, and pays special attention to the work being done at agricultural colleges all over the country. Besides all this it has features to interest the women folk. The price is $1 a year. For a free sample copy send a postal card to the New-York Tribune, New-York.

N. Y, Tri-Weekly Tribune

For those who want to get the New York news and news of things the world over and don't want to spend the money or time in buying and reading a meropolitan paper seven days in the week The Tri-Weekly Tribune fills the bill. It is issued on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of every week. Price, $1.50 a year. For a free sample copy send a postal card to The New York Tribune, New York.

Combination offer—Harper's Bazar, with The Tri-Weekly Tribune, one year, $1.65; The Metropolitan Magazine, with The Tri-Weekly Tribune, one year, $1.65; all three for $2.50.

N. Y. Tribune Almanac

If you never examined The Tribune Almanac just invest a quarter for once, and see how well pleased you'll be. The 1905 one will be on sale January 1, and may be had from your newsdealer, through your local paper or direct from The Tribune office, New York.

N. Y. Tribune Review.

The Tribune Weekly Review is a handsome sixteen page weekly issued by The New York Tribune Association. It costs five cents a copy, but may be had for a whole year for $1. There is no other such publication sold anywhere for the money. For free sample copy send a postal card to The Tribune, New York.

Combination offer—Harper's Bazar, with The Tribune Weekly Review, one year, $1.50; The Metropolitan Magazine, with The Tribune Weekly Review, one year, $1.50; all three for $2.20.
